

AmaGol Services is proud to present

Social Stories™ with Carol Gray

MELBOURNE EXHIBITION CENTRE AUDITORIUM

SUNDAY 24th and MONDAY 25th MAY, 2009

9:00 am to 4:00 pm each day

Carol Gray is the Director of The Gray Center for Social Learning and Understanding in Grand Rapids, Michigan, USA. She worked for many years as a teacher with students with Autism Spectrum Disorders and then as a consultant to students with ASD in inclusive educational programs. In 1991, Carol developed Social Stories™ and Comic Strip Conversations - strategies that are used worldwide with children, adolescents, and adults with ASD. She has published several resources on topics related to children and adults with ASD, including articles on bullying, death and dying, and how to teach social understanding. Carol's full day workshops are fun and fast paced, full of many examples and positive, practical ideas. She last spoke in Melbourne in 2000, and her return visit is long overdue - www.thegraycenter.org

What is a Social Story™? A Social Story™ is a process and a product that shares accurate social information via a special writing style and format that is consistent with the learning characteristics of children, adolescents and adults with ASD. Social Stories™ have practical applications across many program approaches.

What will she talk about at the Melbourne sessions? Carol will present two full day workshops in Melbourne. The first session on Sunday will provide the background and necessary skills required to write a Social Story™. Carol has completely updated, revised and reorganised the defining criteria and process for writing a Social Story™. Carol will also demonstrate how to prepare a Comic Strip Conversation. The second session on Monday is titled "Kidastrophe to Cooperation". This workshop is fun, will make you REALLY think about your responses to children with ASD, and puts the basic tools of Social Stories and Comic Strip Conversations to work in a very practical way.

Who should attend? All parents and professionals working on behalf of people with an Autism Spectrum Disorder of all ages will find Carol's session informative and inspiring. You can attend one or both days—session content is different each day, but Day Two assumes some knowledge of and/or experience with the Social Stories format.

<book in hand> booksellers will be present on both days selling a range of resources, including Carol Gray's many books, booklets and her training video—www.bookinhand.com.au
