Insights into Autism Spectrum Disorder

Application Form: Insights into ASD

One of the most frequently asked questions from teachers and parents of children with Autism Spectrum Disorder is:

“Is that being Autistic or is he just being naughty?”

Gaining an understanding into the nature of ASD is crucial to understanding the child, his needs, and the cause of his behaviours.

These introductory sessions are aimed at Primary School teachers and assistants, but everyone with an interest in ASD is welcome to attend.

Afternoon tea will be provided on arrival.
